

Luxury Law

Our Luxury Law practice offers comprehensive legal services tailored to the high standards of sophistication and complexity of the luxury industry. We serve a diverse clientele, including high-net-worth individuals, beauty and apparel brands, fashion designers, exclusive design houses, and jewelers. Our multi-disciplinary team of attorneys offers a wealth of experience and a collaborative approach to address every challenge.

Our team advises luxury industry clients in a number of areas, including:

- Artificial Intelligence: Strategic counsel on AI-powered tools in the luxury sector, focusing on legal and regulatory aspects of process automation, data aggregation, and content creation, as well as intellectual property rights associated therewith.
- Brand Reputation Management and PR: Legal support in managing public relations and crisis management to uphold brand reputation.
- Business and Corporate Finance: Comprehensive services for business transactions including asset-based loans and credit facilities, equity investments and financings, joint ventures, acquisitions, and strategic exit planning and transaction.
- Celebrity and Influencer Collaborations: Expert legal advice regarding partnerships between luxury brands and celebrities and influencers.
- Commercial Contracts: Our attorneys also advise on manufacturing, distribution, sales and the transport of high-value goods, including logistics contracts, regulatory compliance, insurance and risk management.
- Consumer Claims, Litigation and Regulatory Issues: Defense in claims and litigation scenarios, including consumer protection and competition disputes, with regulatory guidance on consumer data protection, marketing and loyalty programs.
