Andrea's litigation practice focuses on helping government entities resolve complex disputes. She has represented government entities in a variety of matters involving the Public Records Act, public works and environmental litigation. Andrea is also experienced in advising school districts on a variety of issues.

Andrea serves as a member of the WSAMA amicus committee, as well as a board member of the Washington Council of School Attorneys. Before joining the firm, Andrea was a legal extern with the U.S. District Court, Western District of Washington, for the Hon. Thomas S. Zilly and was a Paralegal Specialist with the Department of Justice in the Antitrust Division. After graduating from the University of Washington School of Law, Andrea clerked for two years for the Honorable Ann Schindler at the Washington Court of Appeals, Division One.
