SPOKANE, WA (April 1, 2024) – Foster Garvey is pleased to announce the arrival of Taylor M. Crowther as an associate. He joins the firm’s Investment Management group and is based in the Spokane office.

Taylor focuses his practice on advising clients in corporate, investment and real estate matters. As a licensed CPA with experience working at national and global accounting firms, he brings extensive knowledge related to navigating tax issues in a wide range of transactions.

“Taylor’s background in business, corporate and tax greatly enhances our ability to effectively assist clients in their complex transactions,” said Rafael Stone, Co-Chair of Foster Garvey’s Investment Management practice. “His arrival reflects our commitment to adding top talent, and ensuring we continue to provide best-in-class representation to our institutional investor clients.”

Taylor was previously an associate in the Spokane office of Inland Northwest-based law firm Hawley Troxell.

“We are excited to welcome Taylor to our team,” said Spokane Office Managing Director Jim McNeill. “His addition, along with our other recent strategic hires in Spokane, further strengthens our ability to serve clients in new and innovative ways, solidifying our position as a leading firm in the region.”

Taylor received his J.D., cum laude, from Gonzaga University School of Law. While in law school, he served as an adjunct professor for courses pertaining to corporate taxation. Taylor earned B.B.A.s, magna cum laude, in Accounting and Finance from Adams State University, followed by a master’s degree in taxation from the University of Denver.
