

R. Daniel Carter Elected as Vice Chair of the Greater Tulsa Area Indian Affairs Commission

Firm News
March 13, 2024

R. Daniel Carter has been recognized for his contributions to the Native American community with his recent election as Vice Chair of the Greater Tulsa Area Indian Affairs Commission. Daniel's background in Native American law, federal relations and his advisory roles across various legal matters position him well to make a significant impact in this new role.

With experience spanning transactional and litigation matters, federal regulatory compliance, and serving as Attorney General for two federally recognized Indian tribes, Daniel's comprehensive understanding of tribal law and sovereign rights will guide his efforts in advising on tribal relations and enhancing cultural celebration.

Contact

R. Daniel Carter

Related Services

Tribal Governments &
Enterprises