

Professional Staff

Bring Your Uniqueness and Experience

Are you a professional working in the legal industry looking for a collaborative and supportive work environment? At Foster Garvey, we are proud of our team's culture of collaboration and support among attorneys and staff. We understand that achieving a balance between high-quality client service and personal life is crucial, and we prioritize it for our staff. You'll have the opportunity to pursue your passions and enjoy quality time with family and friends while also serving in leadership roles on key committees.

Our people describe Foster Garvey as one of the best places to work in the industry, and here's why: We maintain a positive work environment, offer challenging and rewarding work, and provide the tools and training necessary to succeed at the highest level. It's no wonder our employees stay with us long term.

At Foster Garvey, diversity and inclusivity are critical values that we uphold at all times. We strive to create a work environment that attracts and retains a diverse range of talent, and we are committed to promoting individuals in a bias-free manner. Browse open opportunities here.